

NWA Dress Code Policy

---

It is the policy of Northwest Airlines that all pass, reduced rate and companion travelers are expected to dress and be groomed in accordance with standards of good taste when traveling on Northwest Airlines or any other airline. Persons who do not meet the following Northwest standards may be refused transportation on NWA and are subject to being denied transportation at intermediate points along the way.

Coach Class

Well groomed, neat, clean attire, conservative and in good taste. Clothing such as denim jumpers, skirts or blue jeans, hiking or military-style boots, athletic or tennis shoes, golf or walking shorts, and baseball caps are acceptable in coach class.

Unacceptable boarding attire in any class of service

Any clothing that is worn, torn, frayed, has patches (including designer holes), sweat clothing or workout attire. Gym-type clothing such as sweat shirts, sweat pants, leotards, tights or jogging suits, T-shirts, bare feet, bathing suits, beach sandals (flip-flops or thongs), sheer or see-through clothing, tank tops, muscle shirts and undergarments worn as outer garments.
